Biba Flyers' Fees

Biba Flyers' rates reflect the experience, expertise and custom service provided. Fees are competitive with other top-tier flight professionals.

When comparing Gary Biba to other providers, here are some factors to consider:

Years of experience	30 years as a pilot, instructor, aircraft owner Former instructor in the prestigious Beechcraft Pilot Proficiency Program, the Columbia Recurrent Training Program, and the Cessna Advanced Aircraft Recurrent Training Program
Achievements	FAA Gold Seal Instructor, NAFI Master Instructor
Aircraft expertise	Experience in 30 models of general aviation aircraft including Cessna, Piper, Beechcraft, Cirrus, and Pilatus. Substantial expertise in Bonanzas, Barons and Garmin G1000 avionics
Total hours	6,000 flight hours
Type of hours	50% teaching/50% real-world flying All hours in general aviation aircraft
Certificates held	Flight Instructor — Single and Multiengine, Instrument Ground Instructor — Advanced, Instrument Airline Transport Pilot — Single and Multiengine
Education	Bachelor of Science, University of Nebraska National Association of Flight Instructors, Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, Experimental Aircraft Association, American Bonanza Society, Pilatus Owners and Pilots Association

If you're looking for the least-expensive option, minimum-hour credentials or accelerated training, Biba Flyers simply isn't your best fit. That's just not how Gary does business. He elects to avoid a generic, cookie-cutter learning environment by choosing to design training programs that are personalized for each client.

Also, it's noteworthy that Gary isn't using teaching as a mere stepping stone to another aviation career. His passion is flight instruction itself.
